Constructed by Gough Cooper in the early 1960s, now coming to the market for the first time. The property has been recently redecorated, has new carpets on the first floor, hallway and cloakroom, a relatively modern boiler and double-glazed windows. A buyer may wish to carry out other modernisations. Many houses in the area have been extended, so it may well be there is similar potential for this property, subject to any necessary consents.

The location is particularly popular, being close to good schools, shops, Maiden Erlegh Nature Reserve and the University. Local bus routes provide access into Reading town centre, where the main line railway station has services on the Elizabeth line, to Paddington, and also to Waterloo running through the nearby Earley Railway Station.

The M4 motorway can be accessed either at Junction 11, where there is also the A33 south to Basingstoke, as well as Green Park and its new railway station; or at Junction 10 where London then lies approximately 40 miles away and Heathrow Airport approximately 28 miles away.
